Managing Your Lymphedema

Monday, November 6, 2017

(6:00 - 8:00 p.m.)

Alumni House at Adelphi University

The Adelphi NY Statewide Breast Cancer Program presents medical professionals from different disciplines who will speak about the best ways to manage lymphedema.

Lymphedema, a side effect from breast cancer surgeries, is a condition of localized fluid retention and tissue swelling. The incidence of breast cancer–related lymphedema ranges from 0 to 3% after lumpectomy alone to as high as 65% to 70% after modified radical mastectomy (removal of breast and axillary lymph nodes) with regional nodal radiation. It can be painful and tissues with lymphedema are at high risk of infection. Although incurable a number of treatments can ameliorate symptoms.
